ABOUT HOPE FOR GRIEVING FAMILIES

The mission of Hope For Grieving Families is to provide peer-to-peer support for families with children in the Washington DC Metro area who have lost a parent, parental figure, or sibling. Regular events throughout the year welcome, connect and support families in their journey of loss. Funds are being raised to provide Metro DC's only family-focused grief retreat to give families new, positive memories and experiences in the wake of the loss of their loved one and give them the tools they need as a family unit to navigate their grief journey together in a healthy way.

ABOUT THE EVENT

The Hope For Grieving Families Hope Family Field Day will be held May 22, 2021. This carnival-like atmosphere provides fun experiences for the parents and children and connects them with other families who have also lost a family member.
